78.35 PERIOD OF SERVICE--(a) METHOD OF COMPUTATION. The period of service is computed from the date of original oath of office as diplomatic secretary, consul general, consul, vice consul, deputy consul, consular assistant, consular agent, commercial agent, interpreter, or student interpreter, and includes periods of service at different times as either a diplomatic or a consular officer, or while on assignment to the Department of State, or on special duty or service in another department or establishment of the Government, but all periods of separation from the service and so much of any period of leave of absence without pay as may exceed 6 months are excluded. Service in the Department of State or as clerk in a mission or consulate prior to appointment as a Foreign Service officer may be included in the period of service.

(b) ADDITIONAL CREDIT ALLOWED. The President is authorized from time to time to establish, by Executive order, a list of places which by reason of climatic or other extreme conditions are to be classed as unhealthy posts; and each year of duty subsequent to January 1, 1900, at such posts, inclusive of regular leaves of absence, of officers already retired or hereafter retired, shall be counted as 1 year and a half, and so on in like proportion in reckoning the length of service for the purpose of retirement, fractional months being considered as full months in computing such service. The President may at any time cancel the designation of any places as unhealthy without affecting any credit which has accrued for service at such posts prior to the date of the cancelation. (Sec. 26 (k), 46 Stat. 1212; 22 U.S.C. 21 (k))
